Waiheke Island

Waiheke is a haven of beautiful vineyards, olive groves and beaches, all just a 40-minute ferry ride from downtown Auckland.

In landscape, lifestyle and experience, Waiheke is a world away.

The white sandy beaches at Oneroa, Palm Beach and Onetangi slope gently down into the Hauraki Gulf and are perfect for swimming, kayaking, or having a picnic.

If you're a walker, explore the island's trails which meander along cliff tops, down to the beaches and into cool enclaves of native forest. At the eastern end of the island the Stony Batter walkway leads you to a system of World War II gun emplacements.

Foodies will rejoice in the availability of amazing restaurants on the island. From wineries to beach side cafes and restaurants Waiheke Island has a taste for every palette. Waiheke is home to more than 30 wineries and vineyards nestled into the landscape.

Getting around is easy too. Regular ferries run to Waiheke from downtown Auckland. Once on the island, there are public buses and taxis, or you can hire a mountain bike, motor scooter or car.

Waiheke also has a thriving arts scene, from local galleries and studios to an inspiring sculpture park, as well as regular art events.
